Concept Note

The 1st International Conference of International Islamic College Bangkok on

Rethinking the Economic, Social, and Cultural Integration of Islamic World in the Contemporary Era

13-14 September 2023

Organized by

International Islamic College Bangkok, Krirk University

Rationale:

International Islamic College Bangkok of Krirk University is one of the first colleges in Thailand to offer diverse courses and academic services on Halal industry, Islamic finance, and Hajj and Umrah management. The college is the pioneer in establishing a new context for Islamic education in Thailand and understanding the circumstances of the Islamic world in the modern era. The diverse Muslim world holds significant value in the global economy. The Halal Food Market Outlook 2022–2032 reveals that the halal food market was valued at USD 1.2 Tn in 2022 and is projected to grow at a CAGR of 5.6% during the forecast period to reach a value of USD 3.0 Tn by 2032. Similarly, according to an estimation in 2022, Islam has 1.97 billion adherents, making up about 25% of the world population. In this context it is pertinent to have academic discussion to understand the dynamics of Muslim world and their relationship with the rest of the world. Krirk University initiative to hold the conference titled “Rethinking the economic, social, and cultural integration of Islamic World in the Contemporary Era” is a timely step to take.

The executive committee of the college has agreed to support the academic networks through organizing this international conference, which is a key opportunity for strengthening the college’s staff and academics, including students. This is an opportunity to exchange academic information in various contexts and to strengthen Krirk University's academic network and quality to make it more popular among international universities in Asia and around the world.

Therefore, International Islamic College Bangkok decided to organize the 1st International Conference between May 23 and 24, 2023, for the purpose of producing the research proceedings, the outcome of articles and publications, supporting the quality of instructors, researchers, and interested people to motivate them for doing research, and building an academic network with other educational institution.

Objectives

1. The platform for the exchange of ideas and knowledge among instructors, researchers, and students allows for the dissemination of research papers and articles in a variety of fields.
2. Building the academic network and research collaborations between Kirk University and other universities
3. To develop the research questions for the study of future issues.

Type of project International Conference

Targeted group:

- Academic scholars, Instructors, Researcher, and interested person from Middle East. Asian and other
- The scholars who have working on Islamic economic, cultural and Muslim society
- Ph.D, and Master degree student who working on the related topic.
